Criteria for Successful Completion & Receiving Continuing Education Credit

To receive your continuing education certificate (and for your continuing education credit to be activated/recorded) in our learning management system, course attendees must meet all criteria for successful completion of the workshop.

1. Compliance with requirements for course sign in and provision of complete learner information.
2. Full attendance and active participation in the event/course, and completion of any required activities.
3. Completion of the end-of-workshop evaluation (online).
4. NOTE: Within 5 – 7 business days after Soul Ingredients® Workshop at Duke (April 13, 2018) and/or World Voice Day 2018 at Duke (April 14, 2018), you will receive important email (at the email address you provide during registration), with a link and very specific directions for completing respective online course evaluation and receiving your continuing education credit.
5. If you registered for and attended both courses (Friday, April 13, and Saturday, April 14), you will receive two separate emails (one for each course). You will need to follow directions in both emails, and complete two separate online evaluations (one for each course) to receive your continuing education credit for each day.
6. If you registered for and attended only one course (Friday, April 13, or Saturday, April 14), you will receive one email (for whichever course/day you attended). This email will contain directions for completing the online evaluation, and receiving your continuing education credit for the course/day that you attended.
